FRIDAY, MARCH 11. 1743.

by arrived a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Florence, Feb. 23.

HE Elected Dowager Palatine relaps'd on the 17th; she was blooded on the 18th, but without receiving any Relief; soon after she sent for a Notary, and added a Codicil to the Will she made 3 Years ago. She then received the Sacraments of the Church, and died in the Evening. The Count de Richcourt, as she expired, produced the Grand Duke's full powers to take upon him the Execution of the Will of said Princess. At Night the Council of Regency assembled, and the Testament of her Serene Highness, with subscribing Witnesses, and the Notary before whom taken being brought before them, it was, after necessary Forms were over, open'd and read. The contents of this Will were, that her Serene Highness bequeathed the reigning Grand Duke the universal Heir of the Electorate; and her Majesty the Queen of Hungary, Consort, sole Heiress of her Jewels, Plate, &c. The value of this Succession is computed at 10,000,000 of Crowns. The Deceased Princess left several Legacies, regularly 130,000 Crowns to the Family of Medici; and failing of Heirs in that Family, to the Duke of Medici. She likewise left 150,000 Crowns to be distributed amongst her Domesticks, which Sum she bequeathed in the Monastery of St. Mary, with an Instrument declaring the manner in which she would have it distributed. All the Diversions of the Carnival are ended here on account of her Decease.

Florence, Feb. 23. Prince Octavian de Medici, who had Pretensions on the Succession of Tuscany, died on the 17th, generally regretted. The Day before yesterday 3 English Men of War sail'd out of our Road. All the Advices we have from that Island, that the Duke of Tuscany was received at Campo Moro with universal Acclamations. He went from thence to the Island of Rofa, which the Genoese Garrison abandoned on his Approach. All the Province of Balagna is now at his Devotion, and he has caused a vast Quantity of Arms and Ammunition to be distributed through the whole Island. He has already form'd an Army of 10,000 Men, with which he intends very soon to besiege the Inhabitants of Balagna have already block'd up; he has summon'd all the Fortresses held by the Genoese in the Island, and has threaten'd, that if they do not surrender in a certain Time, he will give them no Quarter. Captain Fanouzzi has taken 1200, in which 60 Genoese Soldiers were put to the sword, and the famous Partizan Capponi was mortally wounded. A Body of German Deserters, to the Number of 1200, have lately join'd Don Theodore, and his Army have made Prize of 4 Genoese Barks laden with Wine, and other Provisions. In all probability we shall quickly hear of a total Revolution in that Island.

March 3. The German Succours intended for the Army of Count Traun march with incredible Diligence, and by the Middle of this Month he will be reinforced with at least 6000 Men. His Sardinian Majesty writes in very obliging Terms to compliment that Prince on his Victory, and has assur'd him, that his Majesty shall be always ready to second his Excellency on every Occasion. The German Hussars have posted themselves of several Spanish Posts, but were not able to come up with the Troops that deserted them.

Extract from the Paris Almanach.

Paris, March 15. 'M. Broglie is again appointed to command in Chief in Bavaria, and all the General Officers are named who are to command under him. The First Battalions of the French and Swiss Guards march this Day and To-morrow for the Moselle, and will speedily follow them. A Detachment of Men from each Company of these two Regiments have begun to mount Guard at Versailles without Command, which was never done before.

The Prince of Conti, who arrived here last Saturday Evening, went on Sunday to Versailles, where he had a long Conference with his Majesty. The King has been pleas'd to declare M. de Vathan, Provost des Marchands, Counsellor of State, in the room of M. de Noailles, lately deceased.

The King having declar'd M. de Noailles Minister of State, he took his Seat last Sunday in the Council. It is now said, that Marshal Montmorency will command the Army in Flanders.

WHEREAS many Seamen have from time to time inconsiderately deserted his Majesty's Service, by leaving the Ships they belong'd to, as they could find Opportunities for so doing, for which Crime they have incurred the Loss of their Wages, and are punishable with Death by a Court Martial; but my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being willing to impute such Desertion to a Rashness which most of them soon repent of, and would return to their Ships, that they are satisfied therefrom by their Apprehensions of Punishment; and their Lordships, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, being inclin'd to show them so much Indulgence as to remove such Apprehensions, do hereby declare, That such of the said Men who return on board the Ships to which they did belong, on or before the Second Day of next Month; or, in case those Ships are gone abroad, if they go on board some other of his Majesty's Ships, they shall not be punished in any Manner whatsoever, on account of the Crime they have committed, in withdrawing themselves from his Majesty's Service, excepting such as have been guilty of Mutiny, or any other notorious Crimes: And as a farther Encouragement to them, their Lordships are pleas'd moreover to declare, That such as shall so return, shall have their R's taken off, and be paid their Wages for the Ships from which they run. But their Lordships do also think fit to declare, That if any of the Men who have deserted as aforesaid, do not make a proper Use of the Indulgence hereby offered them, by returning to his Majesty's Service within the Time above-mentioned, they must expect to be strictly sought after, and in case they are apprehended, be brought to a Court Martial, and treated as the Law directs.

Admiralty-Office, March 5, 1742.

WHEREAS several Seamen belonging to his Majesty's Ship the Sterling Castle, at Spithead, have taken the Liberty to absent themselves from their Duty without Leave, and the said Ship being soon to proceed to Sea, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do strictly charge the said Men to return immediately to their Duty on board the said Ship, on pain not only of losing their Wages, but of being apprehended and tried at a Court Martial as Deserters, in case they neglect so to do.

Tho. Corbett.

Admiralty-Office, March 5, 1742.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having order'd the Petty Officers and Foremast Men belonging to the Winchester, lately arriv'd from the Mediterranean, to be turn'd over, Half into the Augusta, sitting at Chatham, and the other Half into the Torrington, sitting at Portsmouth, in which Ships they will be paid their Wages for the Winchester, and Two Months Wages Advance before they proceed to Sea; And the Leave of Absence given to the said Men expiring on the 13th instant, their Lordships do strictly charge them at the Expiration of that Time, to repair forthwith on board the said Ships Augusta and Torrington accordingly, on Pain, in case they fail to do so, of not only losing the aforementioned Payments, but also of being Apprehended and Tried at a Court Martial as Deserters. If the said Men apply to the Navy Board, they will be allowed Conduct Money, and Carriage for their Chests and Bedding to Chatham and Portsmouth; but if any of those who are to repair to Chatham, chuse to go down in the Tender which will be appointed to carry their Chests and Bedding, rather than to travel by Land, the Navy Board will cause them to be received on board such Tender, and carried to their Ship at Chatham.

To the READER,
 The Author of the following Treatise has thought proper to give the Publick Notice, that he has reduced the Price of it, that it may not be worth any Person's while to purchase the Printed Editions, which have already been observed on the World; as likewise, all those Piratical Editions, are extremely incorrect, and that he will not undertake to explain any Case, but in such Copies as have been set forth by himself, or that are Authoriz'd as Revised and Corrected under his own Hand.

Several Purchasers of the former Edition, having been entirely at a loss how to apply the Calculations, were oblig'd to have recourse to the Author to explain them, which was both troublesome and expensive; in this Edition, he has explain'd the Use of them, and has also given the Signification of the Technical Words.

ADVERTISEMENT.
 This Book having been entered at Stationers Hall, according to Act of Parliament, whoever shall presume to print or vend a Pirate Edition, shall be Prosecuted according to Law.

AS the Reputation of the Harleian Library must, doubtless, have raised in the Learned a Desire of viewing it before its Dispersal, the present Proprietor hopes it will be considered as an Instance of Willingness to gratify the Publick, that the Books, enumerated in the Catalogue, will be exhibited to View at the Library in St. Mary Le Bon, from the Tenth to the Twenty-sixth of March, from Nine in the Morning to Six in the Afternoon, and interests those GENTLEMEN and LADIES who shall think this great Collection worthy of their Curiosity, not to delay the Visit beyond the Time appointed, some Interval being necessary to regulate the Books which the Spectators may displace, and to make other Preparations for the Sale, which will begin on Thursday the Seventh of April.

N. B. Many Gentlemen having express'd their Unwilling-ness to pay for the Catalogue, and appear to expect that it shall be delivered in the usual Manner; it is thought necessary to advertise those who have already favoured this Design by their Subscriptions, and who ought not to suffer by their Generosity, That all those who have purchased or shall purchase this Catalogue, shall be at Liberty to exchange it at the Sale for any other Book of the same Price.

A PROPOSAL.

AS all our Old Plays, except Shakspear's, Jonson's, and Beaumont and Fletcher's, are become exceedingly scarce, and extravagantly dear, I propose, if I can procure 200 Subscribers, to select from such of our old Dramatic Writers, as are of any considerable Repute, about Forty or Fifty Plays, and print them in a handsome Manner, in Pocket Volumes, at so cheap a Rate, that they shall not exceed Sixpence each Play. I shall take only One or Two of the Best from each Author, as a Specimen of their Manner, and to shew the Humour of their Times. There are also many single Plays well worth preserving; such as the Gossamer of Lord Bucknoll, the Marriage-Night of Lord Falkland, and some others.

In making this Collection, I shall not rely on my own Opinion, but consult the most judicious of my Friends, who have promised me their best Assistance in this Work. And, that such as are willing to encourage it may not run any Hazard, I desire no Money but upon the Delivery of the Book.
